

Assistant Planner
Morrisville, VT

Join the planning team in one of Vermont's premiere recreation destinations. The Lamoille County Planning Commission (LCPC) is accepting applications for a full-time Assistant Planner. This is an entry level position with excellent opportunity for advancement. The Assistant Planner works with senior planning staff to implement a broad range of projects and programs. This position participates in land use, transportation, natural resources, and emergency management planning activities and researches and drafts documents for review. The position requires attendance at outside meetings as well as some fieldwork. For more information about the Lamoille County Planning Commission please visit, www.lcpcvt.org.

Qualifications include a Bachelor's degree in land use planning or a related field. Applicant must have knowledge of general land use planning principles and possess strong customer service skills. Applicants must be able to work both as a team member and independently. A commitment to community, creativity, a sense of humor, and a positive attitude are all pluses. The position may require occasional evening meetings and public hearings. Starting salary is around $40,000.

LCPC offers an outstanding work environment and benefits. Please submit a cover letter and resume to tasha@lcpcvt.org . For further information contact Tasha Wallis, Executive Director, LCPC, PO Box 1637, Morrisville, VT 05661, 802-888-4548. LCPC is an Equal Opportunity Employer.